

DRY LAW FATE UP TO CONGRESS SAYS ANDREWS

Declares New Laws Asked Must Be Passed or Enforcement Will Be in Danger of Failure.

CRISIS REACHED, SAYS DRY CHIEF

Blames Congress for Failure to Provide Money for Work of "Under Cover" Men.

BY ALFRED P. RECK.
Washington, January 31.—Responsibility for the success or failure of prohibition enforcement was placed directly upon congress today by General Lincoln C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury.

"A crisis has been reached in prohibition enforcement," Andrews declared. "The entire situation has been placed before congress, and it now is up to that body to go ahead, stand still, or retreat."

Secretary Mellon is backing his prohibition enforcement chief.

"It is up to congress," was his laconic comment. "Legislation we ask is absolutely necessary for proper enforcement."

Close observers of the official enforcement situation see in Andrews' statement a thinly veiled threat to congress either to enact legislation suggested by the dry chief or abrogate him from responsibility in case of failure.

Legislation Asked.
Legislation sought by the treasury department includes the separation of the prohibition unit from the bureau of internal revenue, the creation of an independent bureau of prohibition enforcement and formation of a semi-government distilling company to manufacture and distribute medicinal whiskey.

The separate bureau measure already has been given a preferred place upon the senate's legislative calendar while the distillery bill is still before the house ways and means committee with a vote expected Wednesday, but not expected by house and senate leaders to be enacted during this congress.

Andrews also blames congress for hindering prohibition enforcement work when it refused to permit $500,000 in the treasury appropriation bill from being used in hiring undercover agents.

"Prohibition cannot be successful without secret service work," he said. "We do not want to entrap individuals, but we are after commercial traffickers in liquor. I hope congress will change its mind and make the fund available."

"Undercover agents have been warned not to ensnare citizens, but it is within the law to give a known criminal an opportunity to trap himself."

Moonslime War.
While awaiting congressional action, Andrews today declared a new campaign on moonshiners. Administrators were given special orders to concentrate on illicit distilling operations.

This violation of the law has been the chief thorn in the side of enforcement for the last year, the dry chief declared.

In the house today, Representative Hull, Illinois, republican, proposed a plan to supply medicinal whiskey for government sale at 50 cents a pint or less. A distillery can make whiskey at 37 to 40 cents a gallon, Hull stated.

Under Hull's bill the distiller would be allowed 10 cents a gallon profit, eight cents a month storage fee per barrel, and 50 cents a case for bottling. It also authorizes formation of a government corporation, capitalized at $1,000,000 under the distillation of the secretary of the treasury to distribute the whiskey.

A new distillery bill is being prepared in the house, it is understood, which would provide for government operation and distribution of whiskey for medicinal purposes and is designed to change its mind and make the fund available.

Sacasa Predicts Marines Will War On Liberal Forces

Declares Time Will Come When Americans "Will Have To Kill Hundreds of Nicaraguans."

REVIEWS EFFORTS TO BRING PEACE

Denies Animosity Toward American Government; Says He Has Never Obstructed Policies.

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, January 31.—Prediction that the military operations of the United States marines in Nicaragua ultimately will result in their opening fire against the liberal forces was made in a statement given to the Associated Press today by Dr. Juan Sacasa, head of the liberal government which has been set up here.

Stating that the conservative government of President Adolfo Diaz which has been recognized by the United States, could not exist long without support of the American forces, Dr. Sacasa declared that he had done everything possible to avoid conflict with the marines despite outrages against the liberals.

"In due course," he continued, "the marines will have to open fire against the liberals and kill hundreds of Nicaraguan citizens to support Diaz as in 1912."

"Peace Is Impossible"
Reviewing various peace efforts, Dr. Sacasa declared that peace in Nicaragua, based on the continuance of President Diaz in the executive post, was an impossibility. At the same time, he reiterated that he himself never would be an obstacle to any real, honorable peace which might be offered him.

Declaring that he was only defending the right of the Nicaraguan people to settle their own internal affairs, he said that he had no animosity toward the American government and that he never had obstructed the policy of the United States.

"Diaz does not control the country," he said. "On the contrary, the defiance which the liberals have inflicted on Diaz forces are decisive, which Rear Admiral Latimer admits in communications to the state department published in the United States."

"My forces would control the country if the marines were not engaged in military operations against us and if we were not suffering from the effects of a severe blockade preventing the transport of provisions, even Red Cross supplies, to our armies and if the marines did not occupy towns which we are about to capture. Should the marines suspend the hostilities against the liberals, the Diaz government could not last."

Tried To Avoid Conflict.
"I have done everything possible to avoid conflict with the marines despite outrages against us such as the seizure of arms at Puerto Cabezas, which ultimately were returned after the seizure of 2,000,000 cartridges and about 700 rifles at Rio Grande, which were dumped into the river. Despite these hostilities, the liberal army advances and is routing the enemy in several places in the interior of the republic, meanwhile equipping themselves with arms captured from the enemy."

"In due course the marines will have to open fire against the liberals and kill hundreds of Nicaraguan citizens to support Diaz as in 1912."

As to the situation with purposes of promoting peace, he said: "It is obvious that Diaz has nothing to offer. He has not a legal right to the presidency. The only argument he can advance is the moral and material support of the American government. He is morally and materially by an overwhelming majority of Nicaraguans. The marines are only delaying a decisive triumph. I am, moreover, supported by the public opinion of the entire world and a majority of citizens of the United States who are lovers of justice and liberty."

BUDGET SLASH OF EDUCATION BOARD BEGINS

Committee Named Monday Night To Prune Budget "B" at Closed Session of Board Group.

$411,716.44 CUT MAY HIT TEACHERS

Members of Current Expenditures Committee Reluctant To Discuss Happenings at Session.

Slashing of $411,716.44 from the "B" budget of the board of education to conform with available funds will get under way today by a special committee, it was learned Monday night, after an executive session of the current expenditures committee of the board of education. There is only $2,725,000 available while the "B" budget contemplates an outlay of $3,136,716.44.

Dr. R. M. Eubanks, president of the board; Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of schools; and R. R. Ritchie, assistant superintendent, were authorized to make the cuts necessary and to submit recommendations to the board.

The meeting was called as a session of the current expenditures committee, but other members of the board were allowed to attend, although the public and newspapermen were barred. Of those who attended the meeting, who were reached late Monday night, none would discuss proceedings of the meeting, declaring that the decisions arrived at were "too vague and indefinite" to announce to the public.

May Postpone Salary Cuts.
Reiteration or assertions to the school committee of council last Saturday that the automatic salary increases for teachers, which was to have become effective September 1, would have to be postponed, or that many teachers would have to be dropped from the system, were said to have been made at the session.

It is predicted that the board in slashing its budget the $411,716.44 necessary to bring expenditures for 1927 within the amount it will receive, will hit teachers first. The "B" budget of the board, which was tentatively adopted at a meeting last month, calls for an outlay of $3,136,716.44, while the department has only $2,725,000 in sight.

Meantime, more than 1,200 teachers of the public school system in Atlanta will not receive December pay checks until the budget is cut to conform to the money in sight. The citizens' advisory committee, appointed to supervise expenditures of the board for the year, has announced that it will approve no budget which exceeds the amount of the receipts. The December pay roll is slightly in excess of $200,000.

Dr. Eubanks said he will not call a special session of the board of education but that the revised budget will be offered at the regular February meeting, February 8.

Members of the current expenditures committee are W. D. Hoffman, chairman; Dr. M. M. Therrell, vice chairman; George Powell, W. W. Gaines, Dr. Fred Morris and Dr. Eubanks, ex officio member.

Retrenchment Urged.
The citizens' committee last Wednesday night urged retrenchment.

CHINESE FAIL IN ATTEMPT TO SEIZE AMERICAN SHIP; BRITAIN PLANS COMPROMISE

MRS. CHAPPELL WINS PRIVILEGE OF $10,000 BOND

Request Granted by Judge Virlyn B. Moore After Lengthy Conference Monday Afternoon.

Mrs. Emma J. Chappell, whom a jury in Judge Virlyn B. Moore's division of Fulton superior court failed to acquit or convict on a charge of murder of her husband, J. Henry Chappell, will be permitted to be released from Fulton tower under $10,000 bond.

The bail provision was granted by Judge Moore following a lengthy hearing in the judge's private office Monday afternoon. Mrs. Chappell was represented by James Branch who asked for the placing of a $5,000 bond on the grounds that the trial jury stood five for his client's conviction on a charge of manslaughter and seven for her acquittal. She could not be convicted of a crime more serious than manslaughter, Mr. Branch argued.

The state was represented by Assistant Solicitor General Ed A. Stephens and Assistant Solicitor John H. Hudson. Mr. Stephens declared that he believed the state to have an extremely strong case and therefore requested that the court grant the defense which additional time to prepare for trial.

Mrs. Chappell is under indictment for the murder of her husband, J. Henry Chappell, who was shot and killed on the front steps of their Central Hill home on the night of October 31.

HOUSE ACTS SOON ON FARM RELIEF

McNary-Haugen Bill Is Given Right of Way—Equalization Fee Is Removed From Cotton.

Washington, January 31.—(AP)—The McNary-Haugen farm relief bill is to have right of way in the house next week, and its sponsors in the senate intend to call it up there at the first opportunity.

The house program was arranged today by leaders after the rules committee had voted to give the measure preferred status. It was tentatively agreed to call the bill up Tuesday with general debate fixed at 12 hours.

The senate was notified by Chairman McNary, of the agriculture committee, who is co-author of the bill, that he would press for early consideration and would insist that it be taken up before the senate tackles the Muscle Shoals question.

I. is expected that three days will be required in the house for general debate on the McNary-Haugen proposal with allotment of debating time controlled by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee and Representative Aswell, of Louisiana, ranking democrat on the committee.

Aswell has agreed to give three hours of his time to Representative McNary, a leading opponent of the McNary-Haugen equalization fee to control crop surpluses which is expected to provoke the principal controversy.

Mr. Aswell intends to make an effort to substitute his own farm relief bill, while the Curtis-Crisp bill will be substituted for McNary-Haugen. Representative Crisp, democrat, Georgia, when parliamentary rules permit after the conclusion of general debate.

In mapping out today their program procedure, farm leaders in the house decided to make a fight for relief legislation independent of other questions. In so doing, they turned a cold shoulder to the suggestion of Representative Davey, democrat, Ohio, for a coalition of tax reduction and farm relief advocates in an effort to force action before adjournment on both.

Under an amendment to the McNary-Haugen bill offered today by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, the equalization fee would be removed from cotton. A provision would be substituted for payment to planters of the full spot market price for their cotton at time of sale, less than that construction of these ships be abandoned. When the bill was before the house an effort was made to override the president on this item, but to no avail. He was sustained, the bill being passed without any appropriation for these cruisers the authorization of which will lapse if they are not under construction by July 1, next.

Mr. Coolidge omitted the cruiser item from his budget estimates on the ground that to lay down the ships while the United States is participating in preparations for another armament reduction conference would be to this to the exclusion of other subjects.

Fifth Commandment Held Chief by Girl Students

SABBATH OBSERVANCE FIAT LIGHTLY TAKEN

Boston, January 31.—(AP)—Girls of Simmons College School of Secretarial Studies apparently believe it no great crime to indulge in Sunday sports, or look with envy on the gowns of a classmate who visited Paris last summer. At least they placed "thou shalt not covet" and "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy" last in relative importance of the Ten Commandments.

Dr. Edward H. Eldridge, director of the school, refrained from drawing any lessons from the figures obtained from his questionnaire to 835 girls of the school. He did remark on the striking fact that in these days of apparent filippancy and lack of parental control, most students placed "honor thy father and mother" first. He also asked if the relative unimportance in which the Sabbath was held was not a sign of the times.

Each student was asked to group the first choices by one, second by two, and so on, and divided the total by the number of students. The rearranged commandments then stood with their ratings, in the abbreviated form, in which they were asked:

Honor thy father and mother 2.98.
Thou shalt have no other gods before me 3.22.
Thou shalt not kill 3.86.
Thou shalt not commit adultery 5.41.
Thou shalt not steal 5.68.
Thou shalt not bear false witness 5.92.
Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord in vain 6.45.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image 6.51.
Thou shalt not covet 7.32.
Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy 7.40.

Dr. Eldridge also asked the students to weigh two commandments of Christ: "Thou shalt love the Lord with all thy heart," and "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." Of the results obtained he said: "If these statements represent the true belief of the students it would seem the under arrest and disbelief we hear so much about does not exist to a very great extent at Simmons."

Seventy-one per cent accepted both commandments and held them of equal weight, 20 per cent held the second more important and 4 per cent rejected the first, while accepting the second.

SOLDIERS IN RAID ON VESSEL TRIED AND PUT TO DEATH

Twenty-Two Chinese Executed on Order of Own Commander After Attempted Seizure.

EFFORTS ARE MADE TO PRESERVE PEACE

Preliminary Agreement for Settlement by Britain of South China Demands Imminent.

BY CAL HIRSH.

Shanghai, January 31.—Twenty-two Chinese soldiers were executed at the order of their own commander today a few hours after they had attempted to seize an American ship in the Yangtze Kiang river.

The executions, ordered by General Yang Sen at Chungking, were in line with the campaign of commanding generals to calm the soldiery as well as the public at a time when uprisings are threatening the lives of foreigners.

Every effort to preserve peace is being made by the military authorities of northern China pending the outcome of the conference between Foreign Minister Eugene Chen and British Charge d'Affaires O'Malley at Hankow regarding the concessions controversy.

Although Marshal Sun Chuan-fang in Shanghai has forbidden public meetings in the interests of peace, the advent of the Chinese New Year season has brought complications. Some sections of the native population insist on celebrating the New Year with the same gatherings and displays of fireworks that have marked similar seasons in the past.

General Yang Sen has adopted a conciliatory policy toward foreigners in Chungking, Szechuan province. Those executed had attempted to board and seize an American ship which was anchored on the Yangtze Kiang and was ready to start on its way to other nations in that danger zone, in case of emergency. The soldiers were given a quick trial and as soon as their anti-foreigner action had been proved they were killed.

Chinese Read Report.
News of their execution was given prominence in Shanghai and other cities where small foreign colonies have remained. Crowds of Chinese read the report which was posted in public places, partly as a warning against similar movements against foreign lives or property.

While Marshal Sun's officers took precautions against anti-foreigner outbreaks they protested against foreign aid of the nationalist cause.

L. K. Kentwell, British associate editor of the China Correspondent, declared the south Chinese cause in Shanghai, was put on trial in the British court on the technical charge of non-payment of taxes. It was understood that Marshal Sun requested a test on the ground that his newspaper had encouraged nationalist unrest in the province.

When the Sun Shines

Sunshine brings warmth, brightness and happiness. It dispels gloom and banishes the "blues."

It is much like the arrival of The Constitution to your home every morning with its varied messages for every member of the family.

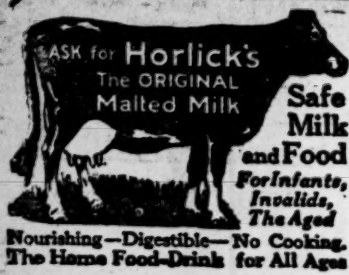

The messages that interest the housewife mainly are those contained in the advertisements of the merchants of the city.

It matters not whether she is a liberal buyer or is economical in her purchases, whether she has much to spend or little—the advertisements in The Constitution have the same interest. The one is looking for the latest in everything, the other for money-saving offerings in the articles she must buy.

Both read the advertisements in the morning—when there is ample time for reading and consideration.

"BOY FRIEND"

CALLED LIAR

harsh words, or cruelty on Mr. Browning's part. It was when the first "boy friend" of the case was on the stand that the courtroom fireworks began.

Says He Knew Peaches. James Mison, a black-haired, nervous-looking youth of Brooklyn, said he knew "Peaches" before her marriage and had pictures in his home.

Earlier in the day it had been indicated to "boy friends" at all would be called to the stand, following upon a ruling that the lavender leather "love diary" of Mrs. Browning was not admissible as evidence.

The diary, together with letters to three or four young "girl friends" of Mrs. Browning, were held to pertain to Mrs. Browning's life before her marriage, a period irrelevant, the judge held, to the present action.

"These" papers, which were a closed book, the appearance of young Mison was a surprise, and Mrs. Browning, and her mother sat at rigid attention during his time on the stand.

Mison said a girl called him on the telephone to say that she was married and that she hoped he wished her well. He didn't know at first who it was calling him and finally asked "It it Frances?" he testified.

"Was it this young woman here at the end of the table?" asked John E. "It was," he said.

"He lies," shouted Mrs. Browning, her lips quivering, and tears beginning to stream from her eyes.

"He's perjurying himself. I never saw him before in my life," she cried.

When the courtroom subsided, Mrs. Mison, the wife of the witness, stood the stand. She testified that she had seen several pictures and letters in her husband's possession signed "Frances."

Since these papers introduced, her testimony relating to this was stricken out.

Overheard Conversation. Roman Androwsky, a salesman for a New York insurance company, called a "bystander" witness. While standing on the curb, he testified, waiting for a young woman, Mrs. Browning, and a middle-aged man, who were on a Riverside drive bench in the dark and he overheard them discuss Mr. Browning.

"I could never love an old man," he said Mrs. Browning said, "but I'm getting what I want and I'll get more."

"Don't be too sure of that," he said the older woman counselled, "but you follow my method and you'll come out all right."

Lee Swint, gymnasium instructor for a school in New York, added shocks to the other elements that had been introduced.

He testified how Mrs. Browning could swear when perturbed. He said also that Mrs. Heenan had used strong language in his presence.

"When Mrs. Heenan talked to me about the possibility of losing this case," he explained, "she said, 'if I lose this case for 'Babe' (Peaches), I'll shoot Browning, Dale, the judge and the whole works.'"

The "whole works," he said, were graphically defined.

At the adjournment at 2:55 p. m., Browning's side had utilized the majority of its witnesses and his attorneys indicated they would probably end the case tomorrow.

Mr. Browning is expected to go on the stand either late in the afternoon or early in the morning. His contention throughout has been that his wife abandoned him without cause, and that she has no legal right to attacking him as cruel, which is the reason she gave as the basis for her leaving him last October, six months after the marriage.

ATLANTA WOMAN NAMED PROBATION OFFICER FOR WARE

(Miss Martha DuPre, formerly connected for a long period with the Atlanta police department, has been appointed adult and juvenile probation officer for Ware county, according to information received in Atlanta.)

The appointment of Miss DuPre to the probation post in Ware county was made by Judge Harry Reed, of Ware superior court.

Miss DuPre's work with the Atlanta police department was that of a policeman, in which position she gave particular attention to the problems and to combating vice in its various forms among both young and old.

Peaches' Story Arouses Gotham To Call Censor

New York, January 31.—Censorship of the press to prevent publication of sordid details in cases like the Browning divorce suit in White Plains is advocated in an editorial appearing in Monday morning's issue of the Daily News, a New York tabloid.

"Admitting that it has gone too far in reporting the sensational trial, The Daily News says:

"In this Peaches-Daddy Browning trial some of the publications reporting it have gone so far beyond the line of decency as to seem insane.

"Far be it from us to pin a lily on our coat. The News also has gone too far. But the point is this: As long as there is more newspaper circulation in more sordid, some presses will be found to roll out the stunt."

"We see no end to competition in the New York newspaper field. Hence, we see no end to the sordid parade, unless the authorities intervene. We hate bureaucracy. But unless the minds of the children of New York are to be drenched in obscenity it seems to us that censorship of the press must come."

Several New York papers devoted their columns Sunday to arraignment of the floor of sensational publicity that has followed the Browning separation suit.

Newspapers which have printed lurid details of the case came in for sharp criticism as did Justice Seeger of White Plains, who ruled that the case should be open to the public.

Dr. S. Edward Young of the Bedford Presbyterian church, who described the publicity attending the trial as "the most flagrant pictorial and news column debauch ever put before the youth of this or any other land."

Justice Seeger's justification to the effect that the main details of the case already had been made public was inadequate, Dr. Young said.

The Rev. Henry B. Kirkland, of the St. Nicholas Avenue Presbyterian church, said papers printing details of the case should be "strictly censored."

Dr. Daniel A. Poling of the Marble Collegiate church criticized "the Browning publicity debauch," linking it with the recent flood of profanity appearing in "our modern novels."

BOSTON TRAVELER BARS BROWNING DETAILS. Boston, January 31.—(P)—The Boston Herald reported that the Boston Traveler has barred Browning details from its columns.

The Traveler's policy is to print no further details of the Browning suit. Its announcement said in part:

"The publication of filth that has been indulged in by the contestants at law has passed beyond all limits of decency and a further publication of the details of the case is a matter of the morals of the community. The Traveler wishes to apologize to its readers for embarking on a course that led to the depths beyond the wildest stretch of the imagination."

FATE OF DRY LAW IS UP TO ANDREWS Continued from First Page.

As a substitute for the treasury proposal, the House has passed a bill to put prohibition officers under civil service.

Consideration of a bill to put prohibition officers under civil service was blocked in the Senate today by a filibuster by Senator Charles McNary, of Oregon, South Dakota, Republican.

"There are too many prohibition officers that we ought to get rid of now, without getting more under civil service," he said.

MELLON DENOUNCED BY DRYS IN HOUSE. (By League Wire to The Constitution and The Associated Press.)

Washington, January 31.—House drys, staging a demonstration on the floor today against the pending proposal to create a quasi-judicial medicinal liquor corporation, denounced Secretary Mellon as "the greatest stumbling block in the way of effective prohibition enforcement."

"Everybody knows prohibition enforcement is hampered because it has been placed in the hands of the present secretary of the treasury," asserted Blanton. "He doesn't believe in prohibition. He is largely interested in distilleries and is the owner of stocks in distilleries."

Denying that whiskey has medicinal value, Blanton said that "doctors make a profitable business out of the issuance of whiskey prescriptions, and he contended that per cent of the medicinal liquor produced is used for beverage purposes."

Shanghai and vicinity. Both Kentwell and Francis Zia, Chinese editor of the newspaper, were abducted by Chinese soldiers after their arrest but Kentwell later was turned over to the British for trial.

Claims to Be National. Declaring that he had renounced his British citizenship and was now a Chinese national, Kentwell, who recently was debarred from the practice of law before the British bar, attempted to have his case thrown out of court.

Questioned by the judge he admitted he had not obtained Chinese citizenship although he had applied for it from the Chinese minister of the interior.

"You are pressing the thumb screws on us now," he told the British judge, "but when we Chinese are in the majority we will press you ten times as hard."

His trial was adjourned until Tuesday.

PROGRESS IS MADE IN NEGOTIATIONS. BY CHARLES M. MCANIN.

London, January 31.—Negotiations between Eugene Chen, Canton's foreign minister, and British Charge D'Affaires O'Malley at Hong Kong, have taken a sharp turn toward peace.

A preliminary agreement for settlement of South China's demands concerning extrajurisdictionality and return of foreign concessions is now imminent. The danger of injuring the final stages of the Hankow concessions is averted.

A preliminary agreement by Chen and O'Malley will precede formal discussions of the Chinese demands.

The British are ready to make practical revision of the status of each concession in China, according to the conditions applying to each one. At the outset they are understood to have agreed that the British will exercise a majority.

The note of the government of northern China was addressed by its foreign minister, V. K. influence of manufacturers behind such an action.

"Manufacturers of this country are not nearly so bad as pictured."

Mr. Gould has been connected with the Manufacturers Record since he was 15 years of age and has worked himself up through various departments and offices until he has reached his present high post with one of the outstanding publications of the country.

He is a member of the executive committee of the Baltimore Commercial bank, with which he has been identified since it was organized several years ago, and also is president of the plant through which the printing of The Manufacturers Record is handled.

From Atlanta he will continue his trip to New Orleans, Dallas, San Antonio and into the Rio Grande valley, as far as Brownsville, Texas.

The petition calling for a probe of the commissioner's books was signed by something like 25 citizens of the county, and today's hearing was consumed by an examination of a large percentage of those petitions. Questioning of the witnesses brought varied responses. Some stated they signed the petition because they had heard rumors of irregularities in the affairs of the county of which Mr. Nash has jurisdiction, and thought the rumors should be investigated, while others said they signed the petition on the belief that it was a request for an audit of Nash's books.

The special committee, composed of A. H. Flake, Leon O'Neal and R. J. Cunningham, appointed in December by the grand jury to have a special audit of Nash's books, turned its report over to the grand jury today, which became a part of the record to be considered in its findings, it was stated. No action has been given as to what the audit reported.

The hearing which opened today was presided over by Judge John S. Hutcheson, of the Stone Mountain circuit. Civil cases were taken up today.

The petitioners, R. W. McElroy, et al., are represented by Attorney John C. Bell, of Decatur, and Nash's attorneys are Leslie J. Steele, William Schley Howard and Scott Candler. Solicitor General Claude C. Smith represents the state. A. H. Flake, of Lithonia, is foreman of the grand jury.

ARKANSAS FLOOD MAROONS SCORES

Little Rock, Ark., January 31.—(P)—W. G. Jones, chairman of the Cotton Plant Red Cross chapter, returning tonight from a tour of Woodruff county flooded regions, said no persons had been drowned in the region northwest of Cotton Plant. He has received 10 reports of drownings, and has traced them all, proving them to be without foundation, he said.

Two supposedly fatal accidents which he investigated were exploded by the rescue of Ola and Darling Glen and their older sister, Mrs. Ruth Smith, as they stood waist deep on a bridge where they had taken refuge, and by the arrival in Cotton Plant of Grover Hays, plantation tenant who said that neither he nor any of his family was involved in a reported drowning near Dixie.

So far as Hays knew no accident occurred on a "floating bridge" over Grinnell's Slough on Griffith plantation, though conflicting reports at various times had placed the toll of this "tragedy" at 100 persons.

Meanwhile Cotton Plant was host to 500 persons driven in from the White river and Cache river bottoms by flood waters from the former streams, scores more were still marooned at scattered points on roof tops or trees and rescue parties in hastily built boats were preparing to make another excursion early tomorrow morning.

Miles of rich lowlands between the rivers in Woodruff, Prairie and Monroe counties are under water. A large area in White county was flooded previously by the little Red river.

SCHOOL BUDGET SLASH BEGINS

Today, among other things, recommended abolition of the board of education and revision of the present system of electing members of the board; consolidation of certain schools and strict adherence to the policy of adopting a budget within the means of the board to execute.

The present financial difficulty of the board was caused by a deficit occurring over a period of six years and it now amounts to $352,000. This amount now is being raised by a special water rate increase of 50 per cent, which city council voted to retire the deficit.

The citizens' committee was appointed last fall when the board was forced to negotiate a loan of $500,000 on private subscription. The committee was empowered at that time to supervise expenditures this year to prevent another possible deficit. Harold Hirsch, Atlanta attorney, is chairman of the committee.

COTTON FIRE LOSSES PAID AT AMERICUS

Americus, Ga., January 31.—(Special).—C. H. Burke, proprietor of the Commercial warehouse here, today paid out $45,027.96 to customers of that warehouse who lost cotton in a fire which destroyed one of his auxiliary warehouses on January 6.

The staple was paid for at 11.5-4 cents a pound, middling basis, and the money was distributed among a large number of Sumter county farmers and business men who had cotton stored in the warehouse. Much of the cotton was of the highest grade and was being held for a rise in the market, but many customers lost a cent as a result of the fire.

ELECTRIC FIRE SIREN TO WAKE SANDERSVILLE

Sandersville, Ga., January 31.—(Special).—Somnolent citizens of this city anticipate a rude awakening now that a giant electric siren has been placed on top of the court house. So loud are its stentorian notes, one may hear the fire alarm in any point in the city.

Heretofore the city has depended upon the shrieks of steam whistles to notify the populace of a conflagration raging. The whistle alarm had to be abandoned when the city installed an oil engine to turn its generators at the light plant.

MEAT CURING PLANT BUILT AT TENNILLE

Sandersville, Ga., January 31.—(Special).—No longer will farmers of Washington county be forced to take chances with the weather in the curing of their fresh meats, as a modern curing plant is being erected at Tennille which will have a capacity of a quarter of a million pounds. An ice plant will be operated in connection with the curing department and sufficient ice will be manufactured to supply Sandersville, Tennille and adjacent cities.

HOT ELECTION SEEN AT SANDERSVILLE

Sandersville, Ga., January 31.—(Special).—The annual election for mayor, treasurer and members of city council will be one of the most hotly contested ever held in this city, according to local politicians. The primary will be held in April.

The principal issue before the voters will be paying the business and principal residential streets of the city. It is understood that many voters are anxious to see this improvement put over.

While no candidates have announced, it is understood that there will be forthcoming during the next few weeks.

SPEEDY ACTION SEEN ON SHOALS

Washington, January 31.—(P)—To conclude its hearings on Muscle Shoals proposals and facilitate action by the house at this session, the house military committee held a night session tonight.

Chester Gray and other officials of the American Farm Bureau federation consumed four hours in testifying in support of the Madden proposal, embodying the bid of the American Cyanamid company.

With a promise of speedy action in the house on any recommendation it produces, the committee hopes to reach a decision within a few days. Any bill it approves will join in the house calendar the offer of associated power companies which received the support of the majority of the joint congressional commission on Muscle Shoals.

The power company bid is also before the senate, where an unsuccessful effort was made today to obtain an agreement for consideration of that legislation. Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, sought the agreement, but Chairman McNary of the agriculture committee, republican, gave Muscle Shoals precedence over farm relief legislation. Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, also objected to any agreement in the absence of Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, champion of government operation of the project.

Senator Curtis, of Kansas, republican, a leader, and Chairman McNary, agreed, however, to cooperate with Harrison to bring the shoals question up at this session.

Members Divided. House committee members seemed as divided as ever since their first time approval of the Henry Ford bid, but, as they closed hearings today, government operation of Muscle Shoals loomed as a possible solution of the problem to be considered along with the private bids. Questioning of witnesses by several members of the committee revealed much sentiment in favor of government operation and Representative James C. McSwain, ranking republican on the committee, had declared he would "not be surprised if the committee turns to government operation."

Representative James C. McSwain, ranking republican on the committee, had declared he would "not be surprised if the committee turns to government operation."

Members drew out in testimony that for approximately $7,000,000 the shoals nitrate plant could be placed in operation for production of fertilizer.

The committee adjourned today after hearing a defense of the fertilizer provision of the Cyanamid bid and attacks by Mississippi and Tennessee representatives on its failure to grant power distribution to the states. They declared necessary to the states. The final session was enlivened by a morning clash between Representative Hill, democrat, Alabama, and L. J. Folse, manager of the Mississippi state board of development, and an afternoon spat between Folse and Representative Wright, democrat, Georgia.

Sandersville, Ga., January 31.—(Special).—In anticipation of a large influx of boll weevils on farms of Georgia, a local manufacturing plant is perfecting plans to construct several thousand boll weevil dusting machines. This company has for several years manufactured a machine with blower attachment that sprays several rows of cotton at one time and is operated by one man, the motive power being the famed Missouri mule.

Farmers who have made it a practice to dust their cotton, state that the yield is always far greater and it is economy to use poison on the weevils that infest cotton fields. Others have used the dusting machine on potatoes, tomatoes, tobacco and other plants susceptible to voracious insects.

YOU ALWAYS RECOGNIZE THE THOROUGHbred

With haste and high pressure in the saddle virtually everywhere, the Pierce-Arrow is still painstakingly built by hand.

Into every detail of its construction—body as well as chassis—goes that almost reverent care for which Pierce-Arrow workmen have ever been renowned.

And while such precision and fidelity to an ideal are not customary in these fast-moving times, they explain why the years always deal kindly with a Pierce-Arrow.

Children who are now infants will be well along in school age before the Pierce-Arrow purchased today need be resold.

And even then it will still look the part of the thoroughbred—it essentially is. For, as you sense the quality strain instantly in the lines and attitude of a blooded animal, you also recognize it in the appearance and the movement of even the oldest Pierce-Arrow.

Hand-building does not make the Pierce-Arrow a high-priced car. The Series 80 two-door coach at $2995 is an example. Easily maneuvered 130-inch wheelbase. Operating economy usually equaling and often surpassing that of cars costing less. Pierce-Arrow nitronite lacquer finish in 16 charming color choices without extra equipment. ## WOMEN OPPOSE SCHOOL CHANGES

A motion expressing to members of the school committee of city council the regret of the 104 organizations comprising the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs that several important departments of the city school system were to be discontinued and that a reduction in salaries of teachers was threatened, was adopted Monday by the federation at a meeting at the Y. W. C. A. building. The hope was expressed that means might be found to avoid salary reductions and discontinuance of departments.

Resolutions of the executive board were read by Mrs. Marvin L. Underwood and adopted as follows: Resolution suggesting that "street playgrounds" be set apart during specified hours for use of children in communities where playground facilities are too distant from homes, and commanding Chief of Police Beavers for enforcement of the ordinance against skating and playing in the streets; the indorsement of a resolution proclaiming Mrs. J. M. High as the person contributing more than any other person to Atlanta's progress; indorsement of a proposed movement for an all-night drug store and promising full support of the organization; indorsement of the movement to ask the city of Atlanta to buy "Sutherland," the former home of General John B. Gordon for a memorial to the late Confederate general and for civic purposes; indorsement of the foundation roll for children of the Stone Mountain Monumental association.

During the luncheon, which was served by the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A., Mrs. R. K. Rambo, president of the federation, presided. Willis Sutton spoke of the school situation. Mrs. R. L. Turman spoke on the council-manager plan of city government.

Police Shakeup Only Beginning, Asserts Beavers

In a shake-up affecting 71 members of the police department, Chief James L. Beavers issued orders Monday separating partners who had operated together for many months, shifting hours of watch and rearranging routine generally in an effort to obtain greater efficiency.

Characterizing this move, which had been promised for some time, as "only the beginning," Chief Beavers stated that "transfers, changes of assignments, details and watches are to be expected at any time and no member of the department will be immune. In the future, assignments and details will be made by myself, instead of by captains."

While no member of the detective force was involved in Monday's orders, S. A. Newport, assistant lieutenant on the day watch, was given another detail and M. C. Williams assigned in his place. The three matrons of the white woman's ward were given new assignments of hours.

MEXICAN QUAIL OFFERED NIMRODS BY GAME WARDEN

The state game and fish department will distribute 5,000 Mexican quail among sportsmen of Georgia for propagation purposes, it was announced Monday by Peter S. Twitty, state game and fish commissioner. The quail will be distributed under a plan whereby each person interested in growing the quail will purchase a certain amount from the department. When the purchase is made the state game and fish department will give free to the purchaser an additional number of quail equal to the number he purchased.

MRS. ASA CANDLER BURIED MONDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Asa G. Candler, Jr., prominent Atlanta woman, who died Saturday afternoon, were held Monday morning from 11 o'clock residence on Briarcliff road. The Rev. Henry B. Mays and Bishop Warren A. Candler officiated. Interment was in West View cemetery.

Funeralbearers were Charles H. Candler, Henry C. Helms, Walter T. Candler, William Candler, W. D. Thomson and C. E. Wilkinson.

Mrs. Candler has been in ill health for the past several years. Two years ago she went to the famous Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore, but her condition failed to improve. Two weeks ago Mrs. Candler was returned to her palatial home on Briarcliff road, where she died Saturday.

In the passing of Mrs. Candler, Atlanta has lost one of its most respected and beloved women. Every week for many years until she was taken to Baltimore for treatment, she carried many of the beautiful flowers that grew in her spacious hothouse on Briarcliff road, to hospitals in the city to cheer the sick and afflicted. She also saw to it that many sick persons had the attention of trained nurses at the hospital, paying for the extra services herself, whenever a patient was in the need of help.

EXTENSION WORKERS OF SOUTH MEET HERE

A joint two-day meeting of the men's and women's sections of the Southern Extension Workers which opened at the Ansley hotel Monday, will be featured today with discussions of dairying and nutrition problems. Speakers at Monday's meeting were Dr. J. T. Cyclopedia, of Mississippi A. & M. college; Dr. M. H. Pearsons, of Auburn; Dr. A. H. Ward, of Clemson college; Dr. A. P. Spencer, of the University of Florida, and Dr. J. R. Paine, of the University of Georgia. Reports from state representatives on recent agricultural developments in the southeast were heard.

Extension workers are employed by the United States department of agriculture and form a cooperative organization of federal and state specialists and research workers. One of the objects of their work is to educate women in the rural districts in the proper use of foods, and to dispense this information through women's clubs, societies and similar organizations, it was stated, this work is handled by the women's division.

Miss Mary C. Creswell, of the University of Georgia, is presiding at the women's meetings. Among prominent workers in this field who are in attendance are Miss Anna Lee Diehl, of the Oklahoma A. & M. college; Miss Bess M. Rowe, of St. Paul, with the Farmer's Wife magazine; Miss Jane Kitchen, of Winthrop college; Mrs. Fannie R. Buchanan, of the educational department of the Victor Talking Machine company; Mrs. Mary Sue Gesell, of Mississippi A. & M. college, and Mrs. Ole Powell Melvold, field agent in home demonstration work of the United States department of agriculture.

'Hint to the Wise' Warns Of Accident Protection

"A hint to the wise is sufficient." So goes the ancient saw—yet how many of us are wise?

Every person who reads the newspapers gets a hint a day of the danger of the ever-growing accident wave. Headlines scream of it.

Occasionally statistics are published when they are impressive warnings—much more emphatic than hints. Yet how many are adequately insured against this emergency?

Many who are not protected will say that the cost of protection is too high.

And there's where The Constitution's offer to its readers between 15 and 70 of the famous $7,500 travel accident policy comes in.

The cost of this wonderful policy—conceded to be the most economical and efficient of its kind—is only $1.25 per year, a fractional part of a penny a day. And the policy grows in value at the rate of 10 per cent per year for five years it is renewed, until the end of that period it involves more than $10,000.

Frigidaire School Opens 5-Day Term With Class of 60

Millions of homes and hundreds of thousands of business places will adopt electric refrigeration within the next five years, 60 Frigidaire salesmen were told Monday at the beginning of a five-day school at the Henry Grady hotel by S. D. Kimball, of the educational department of Frigidaire corporation, Dayton, Ohio, who is conducting the school.

"Due largely to the fact that General Motors was among the first to become interested in this new industry, electric refrigeration has followed the development of the automobile in many ways," Mr. Kimball said. "This new business has already been placed upon a mass production basis, and manufacturing costs so decreased that an electrical refrigerator is now within reach of the average pocketbook."

Atlanta is one of 28 cities in which

We all know of the terrible toll taken by train wrecks, accidents to public carriers of all kinds; crashes of automobiles; reckless drivers who crush pedestrians under their wheels; burning buildings, etc.

We know that no man or woman can foretell disaster. Your time may come today or tomorrow or a month from now.

Why not throw a protecting financial wall about your wife, your children, those you love, with this unparalleled opportunity offered by The Constitution.

The $7,500 travel accident policy is available only through this paper. Already more than $50,000 in cash has been paid on claims of Constitution policy holders.

Can you afford to ignore this chance at protection, at security for yourself and your family?

Watch for advertisements describing the policy in this paper which appear regularly in this paper.

Then do your duty.

Frigidaire corporation is holding sales schools, as a part of its 1927 program, which calls for training of several thousand new salesmen, according to E. H. Danforth, branch manager. The organization in 1927 expects to double its sales of 1926 and do four times its business of 1925, he said.

Plans of the organization for the ensuing year, when with additional manufacturing facilities costing $20,000,000 in use, Frigidaire will have a factory production capacity of 50,000 units a month, were explained. The organization now has 53 acres of floor space devoted exclusively to the manufacture of electric refrigerators, Mr. Kimball said.

"Electric refrigeration is putting its stamp upon retail business and the family's bill of fare alike," Mr. Kimball told the salesmen. "In the commercial field, its economic advantages make an irresistible appeal to the business man, and the well-known desires of the American housewife to find new ways of doing old things better is already manifest in the household field."

Three days of the sales school will be devoted to advantages of electric refrigeration in the kitchen and two will be given to consideration of refrigeration engineering problems in connection with retail business.

AERIAL PHOTOGRAPHER INJURED BY PROPELLOR

J. D. Turner, 28, Charlotte, N. C., aerial photographer, was recovering Monday from injuries received when he was struck by the propeller blades of an airplane which he was attempting to start at Candler field, prior to a proposed commercial flight.

In whirling the huge blade, Turner is thought to have stepped in too close with the result that the revolving arms dealt him several severe blows. At Grady hospital where he was treated, it was reported that a lacerated leg and bruises formed the extent of his injuries.

Piles Disappear

No Cutting or Salves Needed

External treatments seldom banish Piles and for the very good reason that the cause is inside—bad circulation in affected parts, veins are flabby and bowel walls weakened.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must first cure the circulation—send fresh, healthy blood to the raw, sensitive membranes. Internal treatment is one safe method. Ointments and other external treatments can't give lasting relief.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and it has proven successful in thousands of cases—so successful that now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists under a money back guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Jacobs' drug stores, who will promptly refund the purchase price if you are dissatisfied.—(adv.)

Herbert Halverstadt Joins John Hancock Insurance Company

Herbert Halverstadt, for the past several years with the contract department of Ernst & Ernst, announced Monday that he had resigned this position to enter the life insurance business with the John Hancock Mutual Life of Boston, Mass., with offices in the Healey building.

Mr. Halverstadt was in the employ of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company for about ten years before he came to Atlanta in 1923 serving in various capacities and finally as district credit manager of the Pacific coast states with headquarters in San Francisco.

His district led the entire United States for several years in collection percentages. The John Hancock Mutual Life is one of the largest and best known life insurance companies in the country with insurance in force of approximately two and one-half billions, having written about five hundred millions of new business in 1926. Walter Powell is the general agent for Georgia.

In Step With Atlanta's Progress

ATLANTA in 1865, in the wake of the war, was hardly more than a country town. It boasted a railroad junction, a few blocks of stores and a town pump. But her people had vision and courage.

AUTO TAGS BRING STATE HUGE SUM

Substantial increases in receipts for the sale of automobile license tags in 1926 as compared with 1925 were reported Monday by Sam J. Slate, state auditor, who has completed an examination of the books of the office of Secretary of State S. G. McLendon. Total receipts of the department in 1926 amounted to $3,118,928 as compared to $2,638,703 the previous year, showing an increase of $478,813.

Although more tags were sold in 1926 than in 1925 and although the receipts were greater, the overhead expenses in the motor vehicle department were cut from 3.35 per cent in 1925 to 3.19 per cent in 1926. The cashier's office of the department is in charge of Charles A. Cook. The mail order department is in charge of Dr. Royal J. Miller and the record department is under the direction of A. T. Harris, chief clerk. The records of all these officials were accurately and carefully kept, according to the auditor's report.

Auditor Slate filed a complete report on all departments in the office of Secretary McLendon. During the year unpaid checks given for automobile license tags amounted to $4,963 and many of them can be collected this year according to the auditor. Expenses of the motor vehicle department for 1926 amounted to $94,253 as compared to $88,573 in 1925.

The general revenues were chiefly represented by corporation registration fees amounting to $2,537,000; charter fees of $1,600; legislative agents' fees of $1,200; certificates and seals, $284.75; and searches $113.25. Of the disbursements of $6,461.08, the sum of about $3,991 went to the state treasurer and $2,200 went for salaries.

Receipts in the motor vehicle department were made up of automobile license fees, $2,464,435.44; truck license fees, $498,173.54; dealers' licenses, $33,700; chauffeur licenses, $5,594; motorcycle licenses, $1,081; duplicates, $3,132; transfers, $3,333.

Recent scientific research discloses the fact that poison bile in the system is merely a contributory cause to bad colds, and that the "bad cold germ" propagates only when the system is acid.

Two things then, are now considered necessary for bad cold relief—thoroughly cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels, and alkalize the system, which can now be done for the first time with one preparation, "Alertox," the discovery of a Southern Chemist.

Alertox is a liquid saline solution of well known mineral salts, dominated by sulphate of magnesium, which causes a physical (natural) evacuation of the entire intestinal tract, at the same time neutralizing the acidity of the system. Strong purgatives that good the liver merely cause a "chemical" evacuation and should be avoided, as they leave the system in a weakened condition. Under the Alertox treatment, the system is fortified and colds rarely ever hang on more than 24 hours, and often disappear in half that time.

Alertox is pleasant to take, non-irritating, non-narcotic and will not sicken or nauseate. 25c and 50c sizes at any drug store. If your druggist cannot supply Alertox, it will be sent direct upon receipt of price. Crystal Carbonic Laboratory, Desk 1, Atlanta, Georgia.—(adv.)

"FRIEND" GRABS PURSE AND DOES FADE OUT

J. C. Brown, cigar salesman of Tampa, Fla., reported to police that his wallet containing $750 was snatched by a traveling acquaintance as he stepped to purchase cigars near the Terminal station just after arriving in Atlanta, shortly before noon Monday.

Mr. Brown said the man who took his purse boarded the train on which he was riding at Jacksonville, and formed a casual acquaintance. Leaving the station with the man, Brown stepped to buy some cigars in a store on Mitchell and South Forsyth streets. When he took out his purse to pay, his new acquaintance jerked it from his hands and fled, disappearing in the crowded streets.

WOMAN'S NEW TRIAL HEARING POSTPONED

Augusta, Ga., January 31.—(P)—The hearing on motion for a new trial in the case of Mrs. Lillian L. McKie, who was convicted last fall on a charge of the murder of her husband, George A. McKie, and given a life sentence, was postponed by Judge A. L. Franklin, of superior court, here today.

Science Revelation, Says Judge F. C. Hill

"Christian Science: The Revelation of Man's Inalienable Rights," was the subject of a lecture delivered before a large audience Monday night at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Atlanta, by Judge Frederick C. Hill, C. S., of Clinton, Ill., member of the board of lecturership of the mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The lecturer spoke in substance as follows: "There is a substantial conviction in the thoughts of normal individuals that it is right to be healthy and to be happy; and toward the attainment of these desirable ends."

The basic foundation upon which government rests is the fact that mankind is endowed with certain inalienable rights and the pursuit of happiness. These fundamentals have been designated and named 'Man's Inalienable Rights' and civil law has decreed that the enjoyment of these rights shall not be limited, abridged, nor denied, without 'due process of law.'

A survey of the conditions surrounding mankind will disclose the fact that many individuals are sick and suffering, and are not enjoying liberty of mind and body. It will be observed that great masses are not successfully engaged in the pursuit of happiness. The amazing fact is the discovery that these individuals have not been deprived of their natural, sacred rights through the action of law. These distressing penalties are self-imposed through erroneous thinking; and they have utterly failed to discern the difference to the fundamental order of right thinking will establish and insure the enjoyment of these rights.

An illustration. "No doubt it has occurred to many people that the law is a cruel and oppressive thing, and that the only way to escape its grasp is to find some conditions, the obstacles seem apparently insurmountable, and the individuals conclude that there is no available remedy, hence they endure them."

"As we approached the truck one of the men observing his interest in it said: 'Well, I suppose you can tell me just how to remove this truck.' He smiled, and at once replied, 'Let me think. Maybe I can tell you how to move it.' The man looked at him in amazement and replied: 'Think. What does your thinking have to do with removing that big truck?' The little newsboy had observed that the motor within the truck was silent. He turned his attention away from the obstacle and began to look about him. He saw a large switch on an adjacent track about 200 yards away. In an instant he exclaimed: 'Yes, that's it. You have to move it. Back that big engine up to the rear of the truck and engage the clutch. Then pull the truck out of your way in a jiffy.' His recommendation was adopted, the engine and clutch were attached to the truck, and in ten minutes we were on our way into the terminal station."

"There are many distressing human experiences, including poverty and disease, the enjoyment of man's natural rights, just as the truck impedes the normal progress of the train into the terminal station. Just as the truck could be removed through right thinking, so it has been discovered that all through the ages there has been, and now is, an efficient and effective remedy for every human ailment. This remedy has been restored and presented to the world through the Christian Science movement, the fulfillment of the basic laws of life, liberty and happiness."

"I am quite sure it will be agreed that if Christian Science is a revelation, then, of necessity, it must have its foundation grounded and established in Bible authority. Hence, the requisites of a revelation and practice of Christian Science, it must be recognized and accepted that its teachings are based fundamentally upon the Bible; and that the King James version of the Bible, Mary Baker Eddy received her inspired revelation. She gave to the world her discovery, and founded and established the Christian Science movement."

"There are many intelligent people who have never investigated the subject of Christian Science; and at times one hears this expression: 'Christian Science is a great deal about a discoverer's talk or who is that discoverer?' What was discovered? What was founded?"

The answer to all these queries is simple. An intelligent, devout, Christian woman, Mary Baker Eddy, is the discoverer and founder of Christian Science. Early in childhood she became deeply religious and was an efficient and progressive student of the Bible. The scriptures she proved to be perfect truth and confidence in God's laws are followed by fixed and absolute results. She furthermore proved that God governs the universe, including man, through infinite intelligence; and that infinite intelligence constitutes and embraces absolute law. She likewise proved that absolute law is immutable (unchangeable), and that it can be understood and intelligently applied, and when understood and accordingly applied, absolute law sets aside and nullifies the false beliefs of designated and termed, 'natural' or 'human' law.

"During her investigation and research, an injury caused by an accident led her to study these absolute, immutable laws to her then apparently hopeless condition; and through her understanding and the intelligent application of these laws she healed. Through this experience she had proved for herself that God's laws are immutable, available and operative. She discovered the 'divine laws of life, truth and love' (Science and Health, page 107). She named that discovery Christian Science."

"After her discovery and healing she wrote and published a book, 'Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures,' and designated this book the Christian Science textbook. Many people believe that Christian Scientists regard this book as the Bible, and that they substitute it for the Bible. This belief is unfounded and untrue. The Christian Science textbook is not the Bible, nor a substitute for it. It is merely that which its name implies: A 'key,' a spiritual interpretation of God's unchangeable laws set forth in the Bible."

"In due time this New England woman established a church—The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., and throughout the world there have been established many legitimate and authorized branches of this church."

"Christian Scientists love this Christian woman and they are deeply grateful for the years of loyal devotion and sacrifice by her establishing this cause. As a testimony of their loyalty, devotion and gratitude, they are striving to preserve, protect, and make available, her discovery. They are striving to make it to the needs of humanity. And they are earnestly striving to live up to her high standard of a genuine Christian Scientist thus defined: 'Christian Scientists abide by the laws of God and the laws of the Master, they go into all the world, preaching the gospel and healing the sick.' Moreover, they love their enemies, even those that hate them. This we all must do to be Christian Scientists in spirit and in truth."

Message Sent To Wrong Wife Jails Bigamist

Philadelphia, January 31.—(P)—A card congratulating the wrong wife on the birth of a child led to the arrest of Edward J. Ireland, 27, of Chester, Pa., and his arraignment in court today faced by both wives. He was held under $2,500 bail for further hearing.

Mrs. Ireland, who discovered her husband's alleged dual family life, said she was Miss Willis Abernathy before she married him in 1912 in Greenville, S. C. June 8, 1925.

Mrs. Ireland No. 2, to whom the baby was born, said she was Miss Susie Gay before she and Ireland were wed at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., September 19, 1925.

Ireland maintained homes for both wives in this city. Both women said he told them he was an insurance agent and had to leave on long trips. He divided the week equally between both households, they said. Mrs. Ireland No. 2, with her baby, left the courtroom on the arm of Mrs. Ireland No. 1.

FAMOUS PAINTING ON EXHIBIT AT HIGH'S

Art lovers of Atlanta will be given an opportunity of seeing the famous painting, "Never Alone," by Herbert de Mareau, Jr., at the J. M. High company between now and February 12, and hundreds of people enjoyed the picture Monday, the first day it was exhibited, store officials said.

The painting, valued at $75,000, is on display on the second floor of the J. M. High company. The artist painted the picture in October, 1914. It is a war scene without any trace of conflict. A young French soldier has been shot down in the forest of the Somme and lies with his life fast ebbing away. But the soldier is not alone—a figure stands over him, the figure of Him who said, "I Will Never Forsake Thee."

Herbert de Mareau, Jr., the painter, was killed in 1918 at the battle of Chateau Thierry. The painting is 10 feet long and 6 inches high and 6 inches wide. It was seen by 2,000,000 people when exhibited at New York. There is no charge to see the picture here.

Prince Carol Ready To Go Back Home

Paris, January 31.—(P)—Former Crown Prince Carol of Rumania, his affair with Magda Lupescu over, is ready to return to his wife, Princess Helen, and their son, Prince Michael, the heir apparent.

This assertion was made today by Professor Nicolas Jorga, Rumanian savant and political figure, former tutor and close friend of the errant prince. At Carol's home in Neully, however, the usual secrecy was maintained.

Asked regarding a report that Carol was preparing to proceed to Rapallo, Italy, where Princess Helen recently went with her son, Professor Jorga said: "Helen has forgiven everything, and Carol is reconciled to return to his wife and child. Carol's return to live under the same roof with his lawful wife, an essential condition of my supporting him to ascend the throne of his father."

PRINCESS IS ANXIOUS TO REJOIN HUSBAND.

Rapallo, Italy, January 31.—Desire for reunion with her philandering husband, the former Crown Prince Carol, of Rumania, is the sole hope of his wife, the former Crown Princess Helen of Greece.

While she described to a United News correspondent, in an exclusive interview Monday, her trials since the Rumanian heir left Bucharest a year ago to join Madame Magda Lupescu in Paris, a Rumanian court attendant declared that Princess Helen was ready to make any sacrifice for reunion with her husband.

"For more than a year I have been silent regarding the quarrel in my family," said Princess Helen, "I have devoted myself to fulfilling the duty of a mother. I avoided coming to Italy often, as I had wished, and as my mother had wished, just to prevent fantastic interpretations of such a trip."

In Bucharest, Princess Helen said, she had been surrounded with the tender affection of King Ferdinand, Queen Marie and their subjects.

"You ask me whether or not I came to Italy to meet Carol," she said. "I came to Italy to attend the ceremonies held in connection with the anniversary of my father's funeral. You ask me if my son, Prince Michael, will meet Carol."

"I do not know. How can I answer? I beg that you remember that we are neither divorced nor separated."

A representative of the Rumanian court, present during the interview, said that Princess Helen desires more than anything else the restoration of peace in her family and will place no obstacle in the way of a meeting between the boy prince and his exiled father, the attendant said.

Public Anxiously Awaits Maneuvers Of Ground Hog

BY BILL SHIPPEN

Tomorrow is ground-hog day! Everyone is getting anxious. They want to know when to plant the crop and stop away the family flannels, or if that last ton of coal is going to hold out.

All eyes are turned on Grant Park. The weather prophet is out there in a cage. The little fellow is enjoying his annual nap, snoring as peacefully as if he didn't know the full extent of his responsibilities.

Everyone knows the ground-hog is a little fellow. He will run from his own shadow, especially on February 2. Tomorrow he'll wake up and have a look at the calendar, then venture out. . . . And if he sees anything that even looks like a shadow—good night—the old boy will pull his freight for home plenty quick. He won't be out for a month; and no one else will go out if they can help it because the weather will be terrible for six weeks, according to the old saw.

If he doesn't see his shadow—well, that's different. The bad weather, in that event, is over for the winter, or the old, old superstition has it.

Hull Takes Issue With President On Cut in Debt

Washington, January 31.—(P)—Issue was taken with President Coolidge tonight by Representative Hull, democrat, Tennessee, over the chief executive's statement Saturday that government expenditures have been reduced by nearly $2,000,000,000 during the past six years.

Wholly misleading inferences may be drawn from this statement Hull asked, unless the claimed reduction is submitted to careful analysis.

The clear inference from this partial statement," he said, "is that the Harding and Coolidge administrations have been annually reducing the level of expenditures at the rate of $533,000,000. The whole truth is that expenditures of the government have been actually increasing since 1924.

"What has happened, and nearly all that has happened, was that for the single year, 1922, the reduction of the army and navy to a peace basis and the discontinuance of appropriations for the railroads and a portion of those of the shipping board, permitted a permanent reduction of the level of expenditures in the amount of $1,750,000,000 so that the total appropriations for 1922, omitting public debt items, were $3,373,000,000.

"If we take the expenditures for the five years, 1922-1926 inclusive, the total reductions have been only $250,000,000, or an average of $50,000,000 a year. This is a vastly different picture of reductions from that presented by the president."

Hull declared he would not deny the Harding and Coolidge administrations full credit "for what they have actually accomplished, but it is due the American people that the true facts should be known."

END OF ALLIED MILITARY CONTROL HELD IN ABEYANCE

Paris, January 31.—(P)—Although the last day of January was the date fixed for settlement of the German disarmament problem, when military control would pass from the allied mission to the league, an agreement had not been reached tonight, and the allied council of ambassadors postponed their meeting, while the clock was turned back.

By special dispensation, which the ambassadors' council assumed authority to accord, however, the time limit was extended until tomorrow noon, when a final meeting of the council will be held.

The real question at issue was dismantling of the Konigsberg and other fortifications in eastern Germany. The Germans made slight concessions regarding these fortifications but the inter-allied war committee was not satisfied as to the extent of the new concrete field works on the Polish frontier which the Germans were willing to destroy.

The Berlin cabinet crisis is charged with responsibility for failure thus far, as the German delegates appear as eager as the allies to come to a final settlement. The feeling in Berlin, reflected by German experts here, is that a settlement with the allies now would be better than to inaugurate league control, with the vexed question of fortifications of the east Prussian border, which the allies contend, are contrary to the treaty of Versailles.

BUSINESS CLUB GROWTH SHOWN

The American Business club has become the fifth largest civic organization in the United States in point of number of clubs established and membership, according to H. I. North, of Baltimore, national president, in an address at the ladies' day meeting of the Atlanta club Monday night at the Henry Grady hotel.

The speaker asserted that within less than 10 years the organization, whose membership is composed principally of younger men, has become one of the most virile civic bodies in the country, and is recognized as ranking favorably with some of the older civic organizations. He complimented the Atlanta club upon the free eye clinic for needy children which it maintains, and said that a number of other clubs are preparing to follow the idea.

Mr. North is making a tour of southern cities having clubs. He was welcomed to Atlanta by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, who spoke at the meeting. The meeting also was an anniversary occasion celebrating the first birthday of the free eye clinic. The clinic is housed in the building occupied by the anti-tuberculosis association on East Cain street. An appeal for funds to further the work of the clinic during 1927 was rewarded by donations of more than $200 from those present.

Joseph Lazear, president of the Atlanta club, presided, and other speakers included Miss Mary Dickinson, executive secretary of the Anti-Tuberculosis association; Miss Nell Brown, connected with the association, and L. H. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the clinic committee.

Members and their ladies enjoyed an entertainment program featuring Prof. F. W. Campbell in vocal selections, assisted at the piano by Mrs. W. L. Wood, and Miss Virginia Moore in vocal numbers assisted by Miss Mary Helms at the piano.

WOMAN WARDEN BEGINS OKLAHOMA PRISON CONTROL

Granite, Okla., January 31.—(P)—Oklahoma's first woman prison warden, Mrs. George A. Walters, assumed control of the state reformatory for boys here today.

Rigid discipline will be insisted upon, Mrs. Walters said in taking up her duties, for it is essential to reformation. She said that she felt equal to the demands of her position as she had observed the management and control of the state reformatory for several years while her husband was warden.

Development of the spiritual, mental and physical is necessary to produce a normal man or woman, Mrs. Walters said she believed, and she will endeavor to do for these boys what should have been done for them when they were in the state reformatory.

Mrs. Walters was named warden last Thursday by Governor Johnson.

ADMITS SHORTAGE Prominent Fraternal Leader Shy in Accounts.

Owensboro, Ky., January 31.—(P)—James Kelley, 60 years old, for 20 years prominent in fraternal and business life here, today admitted a shortage existed in his accounts as secretary of the Masonic Temple company, owners of the largest office building in the city.

Auditors at work on his accounts reported to the directors that the shortage probably would be $20,000. Mr. Kelley said that he believed the shortage to be about $7,000. "I should have known better. It is a terrible mess," Failure of a bank here contributed to his shortage, he said.

No warrant has been issued out for his arrest, directors of the company having undertaken to assist Kelley in making restitution.

Negro Confesses Double Murder In Birmingham

Birmingham, Ala., January 31.—(P)—Horace D. Vaughn, 23, of N. 10th, confessed that he killed A. B. Moore, 40, and Mrs. Ruby Thornton, 35, Wednesday night, January 19, on a deserted road on the outskirts of Birmingham.

Announcement of the negro's confession was made by Chief of Police Fred McMurff, who said Vaughn broke down after an all-day grilling, admitted the crime and promised to lead officers to the scene of the murders and show where he had hidden Moore's watch, which was stolen from the body.

Vaughn lived but a short distance from the pine thicket where the bodies of Moore and Mrs. Thornton were found beside their parked automobile. Moore had received a shotgun charge in the face, and Mrs. Thornton had been shot in the back of the head as she apparently attempted to flee from the slayer.

The negro was taken into custody after shells found near the scene of the slayings were identified, from the impression made by the plunger, as having been fired from a shotgun in Vaughn's possession, according to police.

Moore, who was supervisor of safety and sanitation of the Southern railroad, is survived by a widow and several children, living in Chattanooga. Mrs. Thornton, the mother of a ten-year-old daughter, was living at the home of her parents at the time of the murders. Her husband, J. C. Thornton, has been residing for some time in Atlantic City, N. J.

Police believe Vaughn killed the couple when they resisted an attempted holdup.

200,000 VIENNA WORKERS STRIKE

Vienna, January 31.—Two hundred thousand workers, representing practically the entire factory and shop forces of Vienna, went on strike Monday in protest against the incident at Loibersbach Sunday in which three workers and a boy were killed in a socialist-fascist clash.

While business was suspended in many places here, socialist feeling in every hamlet in eastern Austria ran high. At Wiener Neustadt speakers at a huge mass meeting demanded that they be allowed to invade Hungary and capture those responsible for Sunday's killings.

Radical newspapers insisted that a Hungarian fascist leader met 41 men who caused the clash in Loibersbach after they had fled to Hungary. Some alleged that the clash resulted from a Hungarian plot to create turmoil in eastern Austria and thus assist Hungary in recapture of a portion of that country which was lost to Austria by a post-war treaty.

Vienna's great mass meeting ended a day during which the excitement increased as news of the shooting spread. Early in the morning workers at 42 of the principal factories in the Floridsdorf section of Vienna dropped their tools and quit. By 2 o'clock in the afternoon the idle workers held district meetings of protest and as the anti-fascist sentiment grew, the smaller meetings merged in the center of the city.

Police stationed at strategic points were prepared to prevent violence.

WASH

PLUTO Water

PEOPLE often ask just what is meant by the statement that Pluto washes away constipation. "If the action of Pluto is caused by water," they ask, "why does not common drinking water have the same effect?"

The reason is simple to those versed in the science of medicine. Ordinary water is absorbed before it can reach the intestines. Hence it has no opportunity to wash the digestive tract. Its action is on the kidneys rather than the intestines.

Unlike ordinary water, Pluto Water contains a quantity of minerals exceeding the mineral content of the blood. For that reason, Pluto Water is not absorbed, but passes intact through the intestines.

That is why Pluto washes. It flushes all that's before it, cleaning the system quickly and completely. Pluto relieves constipation in 30 minutes to two hours. Its method is the method that Nature provides for all cleaning—water. It never grips—it is non-habit-forming—as harmless and soothing as it is dependable.

You wouldn't think of cleaning your face with harsh chemicals and drugs. Why resort to such things for cleaning the delicate tissues inside your body? Play safe. Take Pluto Water—recommended by doctors for nearly a generation.

A small quantity of Pluto Water each day will keep you regular and safeguard your health. In time of emergency, you'll find Pluto a never-failing friend. Sold at all drug counters and at fountains. Bottled at the springs, French Lick, Indiana.

KEEPING in trim is largely a matter of sensible living. The bodily mechanism is marvelously efficient. Errors of diet, however, colds and chills, hurry, worry and lack of sleep all impose heavy strains.

Our kidneys shoulder extra burdens. Sluggish function occasionally results and permits retention of waste impurities in the blood. Presence of these toxic poisons is apt to make one dull, tired and achy.

There is often a toxic backache and drowsy headaches and dizziness. Improper kidney function is sometimes shown by scanty or burning secretions.

Thousands have learned the virtue of Doan's Pills, stimulant diuretic, in these conditions. For more than forty years Doan's have been winning new friends. Ask your neighbor!

New York, January 31.—(AP)—The cotton market was quiet today, prices were lower under southern and local selling which seemed to be inspired by expectations of a less active market demand next month and uncertainty of the coming acreage. May sold off to 13.12, the decline of 10 points and closed at 13.12, the general market closing quiet, at net losses of 8 to 10 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 4 points. The relative firm showing at Liverpool, evidently failed to create much buying power here, but the market was steadied at the initial decline by spot and futures buying of March and some trade buying of later deliveries. Early offerings were absorbed by this demand, but the market showed very little rallying power.

Buyers seemed disinclined to follow the market up on the slight bulge which occurred, and prices later worked gradually lower under liquidation combined with local and southern selling. At the lowest, March sold at 13.12, while July declined to 13.05 and October to 13.00. The close was with a point or two of the lowest.

Local brokers, apparently, did not connect the sales with the relative firm showing at Liverpool, and with any particular factor in the day's news, but the theory was again expressed in some quarters that buyers of spot cotton goods might have secured sufficient cover during January to permit them to hold off pending a nearer view of the coming acreage.

Private cables reported trade calling and covering in Liverpool, and that

New Orleans, January 31.—(AP)—The cotton market was quiet today, prices were lower under southern and local selling which seemed to be inspired by expectations of a less active market demand next month and uncertainty of the coming acreage. May sold off to 13.12, the decline of 10 points and closed at 13.12, the general market closing quiet, at net losses of 8 to 10 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 4 points. The relative firm showing at Liverpool, evidently failed to create much buying power here, but the market was steadied at the initial decline by spot and futures buying of March and some trade buying of later deliveries. Early offerings were absorbed by this demand, but the market showed very little rallying power.

Buyers seemed disinclined to follow the market up on the slight bulge which occurred, and prices later worked gradually lower under liquidation combined with local and southern selling. At the lowest, March sold at 13.12, while July declined to 13.05 and October to 13.00. The close was with a point or two of the lowest.

Local brokers, apparently, did not connect the sales with the relative firm showing at Liverpool, and with any particular factor in the day's news, but the theory was again expressed in some quarters that buyers of spot cotton goods might have secured sufficient cover during January to permit them to hold off pending a nearer view of the coming acreage.

Private cables reported trade calling and covering in Liverpool, and that

MARK COMPLETES GERMAN CABINET

Berlin, January 31.—(AP)—Chancellor Marx's fourth ministry was completed today after running the gauntlet of President von Hindenburg's paternal command which cost the head of the government a narrow margin. The cabinet, however, to indicate any definite price trend, or that there would not be a downward price swing as soon as the president's interest is eliminated or made smaller. In brief, the stock market continues highly professional with the price range confined within a narrow margin.

Wheeling & Lake Erie, which advanced over 10 points to 65.12 in one day, was the premier stock of the day, delivered by the market, called for, opened today at 60.12, up half a point from Saturday's closing.

Foreign minister, Gustav Stresemann (people's party), Minister of finance, Heinrich Koehler (centrist), Minister of justice, Walter von Kuellnd (nationalist), Minister of interior, Oskar Hertig (nationalist), Minister of agriculture, Julius Curtius (people's party), Minister of communications, Wilhelm Koch (nationalist), Minister of post and telegraphs, Walter Schaezel (Bavarian people's party), Minister of agriculture and food, Martin Schiele (nationalist), Minister of commerce, Otto Gessler (former democrat), Minister of labor, Heinrich Drauns (centrist).

On the face of the present lineup of his cabinet, Marx seemed to have a majority of about 50 votes against the combined opposition of the democrats, socialists, communists and ultra-reactionary people's party.

The offering of $50,000,000 General Motors Acceptance Corporation 6 percent, 10-year debentures, at 100, by J. P. Morgan & Co., the First National bank and the National City company, was oversubscribed in the first hour, with a total of $51,000,000. The offering was made for the purpose of financing partial payment sales for General Motors. A year ago the company sold $50,000,000 10-year five percent income return debentures against which yielding six per cent offered today.

Unconfirmed rumors were heard today that Continental Bank had been able to sign a contract with Standard Oil which in recent years has been a close connection between American banks and Standard Oil. However, signs are increasing every day that in many lines there is a price cutting for business with outsiders going to those quoting the lowest price. In other words every day the price of the market is generally returning to something more like a pre-war normal basis.

Chesapeake & Ohio sold off today on reports that having been turned down by the Federal Reserve Bank in their application to sell Chesapeake & Ohio bonds to raise working capital necessary in connection with the proposed merger of the Chesapeake & Ohio with the Baltimore & Annapolis Railroad. ## The Day in Finance

New York, January 31.—Advances were made in General Motors, Smelters, Baldwin and other leading stocks on what appeared to be short covering the outstanding short interest. The market, however, to indicate any definite price trend, or that there would not be a downward price swing as soon as the president's interest is eliminated or made smaller. ## Short Interest Gets Nervous

New York, January 31.—(By the Associated Press).—Revival of speculative activity and strength in the oil shares, based on the stiffening tendency of commodity prices, featured today's irregular curb market. Public participation was again on a small scale, the daily average turn-over this month being only slightly more than one-half of last January.

Cumberland Pipe Line, which scored a sensational advance last week on the declaration of a special dividend of $33, reacted a few points on realizing, but other pipe line shares came into prominence, gains of a point or two being recorded by Prairie, Northern, Buckeye and Illinois. Vacuum crossed par for a gain of 2 points, but the other active Standard Oil shares showed only small gains. A 2-point gain in Gulf benefited the independent. South American issues were heavy.

A sharp break of over 5 points in Lehigh Coal & Navigation and a renewed demand for the Central Leather plant broke 18 points on a few sales. Further weakness also developed in the Estey Weckless issue, both A and B plants, which had been up to 20 points, the latter touching a new low.

Active industrials were mixed, the strength of Anglo-Chilean Nitrate, of which the company has announced a new issue of $2,000,000, was a high of $8,141.25, closing at $8,141.25. There was little trade news during the day to influence the price movement. The announcement that the Mexican government had reinstated a 4 per cent ad valorem duty on imports as an indication of a more lenient interpretation of the new law, and probably accounted for the strength of shares of companies with interests south of the Rio Grande. American Smelting, which has been rather heavily lately as a result of the action of the government in non-ferrous metal prices, suddenly shot up over 4 points to 141.34.

Pan American B advanced 11.2 points.

New York, January 31.—(By the Associated Press).—The stock market gave an impressive demonstration of strength today as large buying orders appeared in several of the so-called "pivotal industrials." Rails also displayed a stronger undercurrent, despite the generally unfavorable nature of December earnings reports, but the gains were held to a point or so. Trading showed a moderate increase in volume, but professionals continued to dominate the price movement.

Despite the usually heavy month-end demand for funds, and the sharp deficit in reserves shown in last Saturday's clearing house statement, money was in plentiful supply all day, the call money rate holding steady at 4 per cent, as against a run up to 5.12 on the same day a year ago.

The weekly federal reserve report of brokers' loans showed a decrease of $38,222,000, bringing the total down to $2,731,940,000, as against a low of $2,408,690,000 last May and a high of $3,141,125,000 last January. There was little trade news during the day to influence the price movement. The announcement that the Mexican government had reinstated a 4 per cent ad valorem duty on imports as an indication of a more lenient interpretation of the new law, and probably accounted for the strength of shares of companies with interests south of the Rio Grande. American Smelting, which has been rather heavily lately as a result of the action of the government in non-ferrous metal prices, suddenly shot up over 4 points to 141.34.

Pan American B advanced 11.2 points.

Wall street again was filled with ru-moors of recapitalization plans and extra dividends, the first of which found fruition when directors of the Pullman company voted to form a new holding company to take over the stock of both prior car operation and manufacturing companies. The new company will give 2-1/2 shares of its stock for each share of Pullman outstanding. Pullman, selling ex-dividend today, closed more than a point higher at 187.38.

Speculative interest in the oil was based on reports of an improved trade position. Walter C. Teague, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, denied rumors that conferences were being held with other buyers in the midcontinent field for the purpose of making a cut in the posted price. Houston scored nearly 7 points to 78.14, the highest price in two years. Colorado Oil moved up nearly 2 points and Barnwell General stock, which had been a point or so, advanced a point or so.

General Motors and Hudson led the advance in that group with active short covering was reported on the strength of satisfactory January sales of several models. Frequent Trans and Columbia cars touched the highest prices in over a year. S. S. Kresge issues sank to new lows. Leather, hosiery and pipe stocks all gave good exhibitions of strength.

The advance of 20 leading railroad shares duplicated the post-war high record established last year. Canadian Pacific, which had been a point or so, advanced a point or so. Chesapeake & Ohio was up nearly 2 points and Barnwell General stock, which had been a point or so, advanced a point or so.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Commodity prices moved irregularly. Lower, May wheat dropping over a cent a bushel. Cotton futures sagged 8 to 10 points, but coffee and sugar quotations held fairly steady.

Establishment of another new peak by Spanish pesos above 163.4 cents featured the firm foreign exchange market. The franc was up around $4.84-5 and French francs around 333.12 cents.

AT THE THEATERS.

The Rialto.
Rin-Tin-Tin, dog star of screen, is seen at the Rialto in his picture that is sure full of thrills and enjoyment. The story is not very different from the conventional Rin-Tin-Tin type, but that should be sufficient.
Rin-Tin-Tin, fighting, battling for his life master; Rin-Tin-Tin, torn between love for old and dishonest master and devotion to his new master; Rin-Tin-Tin, evading the hands of justice at one time and then leading to the capture of a criminal gang whose cruelty has baffled Scotland Yard.
Then there is pretty Helene Costello in her first really dramatic role, proving she need not depend upon her illustrious family. In the male lead is Walter Merrill, Otto Mattsson is in the role of the sinister gang leader. The director is Walter Morosoff, who also wrote the story. —F. L.

The Metropolitan.
Colleen Moore—charming, vivacious, brunette Colleen—stars as Twinkles, dancer and golden haired sweetheart of Lincolnton, in the picture "Twinkles," shown this week at the Metropolitan.
Miss Moore is supported in her role by well selected characters. The picture centers around the life of Twinkles, as she is called by all of Lincolnton. She is the sweetheart of Chuck played by Kenneth Harlan, champion boxer of all Lincolnton.
Warner Oland makes an estimable villain and captures the heroine in a manner that is new. Oland, called Rosefield, gets her thoroughly drunk and carries her to his home. And here, instead of waiting for the hero to rescue her, Twinkles succeeds in knocking out Rosefield and flees.
Tully Marshall, as Dad Minasi, plays one of his best character roles, as an old sign painter by day and smuggler by night. Lucien Littlefield carried out well the role of Hank, lovable old drunkard.
Enrico Leide's orchestra plays selections from the musical comedy, "Twinkles," as an overture. An Andy Gump comedy and Metropolitan "News and Views" complete the program.
—BEN COHRAN.

West End Theater.
"Phantom of the Opera"—Lon Chaney, famous character actor, is featured in "The Phantom of the Opera," one of the best-kept films, at the West End theater for the last time today. The story is adapted from the novel by Gaston Leroux. The locale is the old Paris opera house, which according to legend is inhabited by a phantom who occupies a box at every performance, but no one can see him!
Chaney's make-up for this picture is a masterpiece and it adds effectively to his performance. Norman Kerry heads a big supporting cast.
On Wednesday only the West End offers "Time the Comedian" and "Scotty of the Scouts"; "Men of Steel" Thursday and Friday; "The Wolf Hunters," on Saturday.

Palace Theater.
"Battling Butler," a screaming comedy-tale adapted from the stage play of the same name is playing its last times today at the Palace theater in Jannan Park. Buster Keaton, the frozen-faced artist is featured as the prize fighter. You can get a big laugh out of merely trying to imagine Buster as an exponent of the art of leather-pushing, but you'll get a bigger laugh out of actually seeing him perform in "Battling Butler." Sally O'Neill heads his supporting cast.

The Palace offers on Wednesday, "Love Mary" and "The Radio Detective"; "The Sea Beast" on Thursday and Friday, and "The Fighting Age" on Saturday.

Howard Theater.
"Paradise for Two," a Richard Dix vehicle at the Howard this week, is one of those average, substantial pictures that make up the bulk of movie fans' screen fare.
Dix has not as good a story in this picture as he has in his last, "The Quarterback." The acting is only ordinary, but Dix fans will go away well satisfied. Andre Beranger is his usual all-that-could-be-desired self and Betty Bronson, as the feminine lead, is sufficient.
The comedy is good in spots, with an occasional rugged place, where the scarcity of story makes it necessary to prolong some comedy sequence.
The Royal Mountain Ash Welsh choir, the Public stage offering, is an excellent band of male voices that received full approval of Monday night audiences. John P. Williams, basso, took the fancy of the Monday night audience, which called him back.
Charles Calvert, "eccentric musician," offers a couple of songs with uke and a dance that registers fairly well. "The Student Prince," overture, organ number and screen novelties close.
—ELMO HAMBY.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION AT CHARLESTON IN 1860, THE NORTHERN FACTION NOMINATED STEPHEN DOUGLAS FOR PRESIDENT. THE DELEGATES OF SIX SOUTHERN STATES REFUSED TO SUPPORT DOUGLAS, DENOUNCED HIS DOCTRINE OF "POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY," AND LEFT THE CONVENTION, LED BY WILLIAM YANCEY OF ALABAMA, AN ARDENT ADVOCATE OF SECESSION.

MODERATES OF ALL PARTIES, OLD WHIGS AND "KNOW-NOTHINGS" UNITED IN FORMING THE "CONSTITUTIONAL UNION PARTY" AND NOMINATED JOHN BELL OF TENNESSEE FOR PRESIDENT. THEIR PLATFORM DID NOT MENTION SLAVERY, BUT PROPOSED TO SUPPORT THE CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION.

THE DISSENTING SOUTHERN DELEGATIONS HELD A CONVENTION OF THEIR OWN AT BALTIMORE AND CHOSE JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE OF KENTUCKY AS THEIR CANDIDATE. THEIR PLATFORM SUPPORTED THE JEFFERSON DAVIS RESOLUTIONS, AND UPHHELD THE PRINCIPLES OF THE DRED SCOTT DECISION.

AT CHICAGO, THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION ADOPTED A PLATFORM REPUDIATING THE DRED SCOTT DECISION AND ASSERTING THE RIGHT OF CONGRESS TO FORBID SLAVERY IN THE TERRITORIES. ON THE THIRD BALLOT, THE TIDE OF VOTING TURNED FROM SEWARD, THE FAVORITE, TO LINCOLN, WHO WON THE NOMINATION AMID A SCENE OF WILD ENTHUSIASM.

MEN WHO MADE THE WORLD

HAVING INHERITED A LARGE ESTATE IN VIRGINIA, WASHINGTON WAS, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PRACTICE OF THE TIMES, A SLAVEHOLDER, OWNING ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOUR SLAVES AT THE TIME OF HIS DEATH. BUT HE ALWAYS DISAPPROVED OF THE SYSTEM OF SLAVERY. AS EARLY AS 1786, HE WROTE IN A LETTER TO HIS FRIEND, ROBERT MORRIS: "THERE IS NO MAN WHO WISHES MORE SINCERELY THAN I DO TO SEE A PLAN ADOPTED FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY." "HAD THE 'FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY' BEEN ABLE TO HAVE ADDED THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY TO HIS LIST OF OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, OUR TERRIBLE CIVIL WAR WOULD HAVE BEEN AVOIDED. IN HIS WILL, HE SET THESE WORDS: 'UPON THE DECEASE OF MY WIFE, IT IS MY DESIRE THAT ALL SLAVES WHICH I HOLD IN MY OWN RIGHT SHALL RECEIVE THEIR FREEDOM. TO MANUMIT THEM DURING HER LIFE WOULD, THOUGH EARNESTLY WISHED BY ME, BE ATTENDED WITH SUCH INSUPERABLE DIFFICULTIES, ON ACCOUNT OF THEIR MIXTURE BY MARRIAGE WITH THE DOWER NEGROES, AS TO EXCITE THE MOST PAINFUL SENSATION, IF NOT DISAGREEABLE CONSEQUENCES FOR THE LATTER, WHILE BOTH DESCRIPTIONS ARE IN THE OCCUPANCY OF THE SAME PROPERTY; IT NOT BEING IN MY POWER, UNDER THE TENURE BY WHICH THE DOWER NEGROES ARE HELD, TO MANUMIT THEM."

George Washington

By DR. ELLIOTT SHORING, NOTED HISTORIAN.

LONG BEFORE DRAWING UP HIS WILL, WASHINGTON HAD SAID: "I NEVER MEAN, UNLESS SOME PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCE SHOULD COMPEL ME TO IT, TO POSSESS ANOTHER SLAVE BY PURCHASE; IT BEING AMONG MY FIRST WISHES TO SEE SOME PLAN ADOPTED BY WHICH SLAVERY IN THIS COUNTRY MAY BE ABOLISHED BY LAW." IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE DEATH OF GENERAL WASHINGTON, MRS. WASHINGTON LEARNED FROM HIS WILL THAT ONLY HER DOWER RIGHTS PREVENTED THE IMMEDIATE FREEDOM OF THE SLAVES. WITHOUT FURTHER ADD, SHE RELINQUISHED THIS RIGHT AND THE SLAVES OF WASHINGTON WERE FREED.
